

Prophecy 3: Different Flavours

The Bible tells us that God "... created my inmost being" (Psalm 130). Each one of us had been uniquely created by the Lord and He knows us intimately. He enjoys our different flavours and wants to use them to bless others through prophecy. A huge variety of prophetic styles is on display in the Bible. God's children see images or visions, hear internal or audible voices, hear songs, play music, physically act out spiritual truths, sense other people's emotions and thoughts, draw on scripture and see God's truth in everyday events, amongst other ways. Let's celebrate this diversity and encourage each other's God given flavours as we step out in His love.

Questions:

1. Do you think prophecy is for everyone?
2. How do you hear from God?
3. Which prophetic 'style' best fits you? Or are you 'combination'?
4. What has God been saying to you recently?
5. Does the Lord want to speak through you now? What is He saying?
