

One thing: The impact of pursuing His presence

Psalm 27:4

4One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.

Overview

Punchinello in the story read out, had been shaped by what the world said about him and he believed it. Meeting Lucia gave him a different perspective which caused him to visit Eli, the maker. Here he discovered that Eli loved him just as he was, that he was special and that the maker doesn't make mistakes when he made Punchinello. As Punchinello started to believe him a dot fell off. Punchinello was to visit the maker everyday so that he could start to get Eli's perspective, not the other Wemmicks'.

Here are some helpful questions that you can discuss in your Triplets

1. Please feedback on what God stirred in you as you listened to the story.
2. Have you been pursuing stars or been believing the dots that others have put on you?
3. How does it make you feel that God loves you? that you are special to him? that He didn't make a mistake when he made and shaped you? If there is opportunity you may want to stop, and let the Holy Spirit minister at this point. Let this truth impact your heart and not just your mind.
4. Lucia had been instrumental in pointing Punchinello to Eli. What challenge and example does this bring to us? This is an example of our internals having been changed so that our externals show it and other see it! Do you want this? Pray!!
